Shows

CHS stand at Royal London Show early September

The new CHS show tent made its debut at the Royal London Show, at Onley Grounds, near Rugby, between 2nd and 4th September. It was 'manned' by Helen Thirlby, Liz Webster, Ruth Staines and Rosemary Harris, John Sansome helped with erecting the new tent. Dreda Randall supplied a Caspian for the stand.

Totnes Show

Pandora, with Ruth Staines, also represented the CHS at Totnes Show in July. Pandora gave two demonstrations with her mares, Khomeet and Kansei, on how to train a horse to harness, giving several children from the audience an exciting chance to join in and attracting considerable interest in the Caspians.

Kingsbridge Show

At time of writing, Pandora and the mares are expecting to represent the CHS at Kingsbridge Show, although there is unlikely to be a chance to demonstrate or parade them. However, Pandora intends to enter them and possibly a third mare in some of the classes, for which she may be in line to receive a CHS Highest Placed Caspian rosette and pick up some performance points.

Senior Stud Book

We are proud to say that official recognition as the senior studbook of the Caspian breed by the European Commission and Defra has been achieved by the CHS this year. We have maintained registrations since the 1970's when Louise Firouz original breeding records were passed to the Hopstone Stud for safekeeping, therefore have the oldest continuous stud-book for Caspians.

Australian Flood appeal

Due to the generosity of individuals & Societies, £739. 17 was raised and divided between Rosie Mecca & Jenne Timbs, full update in the next magazine.

Gene Bank Fund

Two new posters and a Leaflet have been produced to help to raise money for the much needed Gene Bank Fund via the Just-giving donation site, we have a link on our website on the 'NEWS' page.

Christmas Lunch

The Caspian Christmas Lunch for Members, guests & Non Members is on Sunday 27th November 2011 at The Fox Inn Lower Oddington, GL56 0UR 01451 870555

£20 for two courses or £25 for three courses, including coffee. After lunch there will be a guest speaker & the 'Points for Performance' for 2011 awarded. Members will receive full information and it will also be on the web-site.

New Merchandise

We now have some interesting new CHS merchandise! Fridge magnets are a popular and lasting way of reminding people of Caspians and the CHS website. There are also CHS rosettes, pens and postcards, all with our website address, as well as the tremendous CHS exclusive polo-sweats and sweatshirts for adults and children. To purchase, contact Liz: lizwebster08@gmail.com
